Minor Children

Do you have children under 18 years?

A legal guardian is an adult(s) designated to care for a minor child(ren) in the event both parents die before that child reaches adulthood. A legal guardian(s) takes over the duties as the child(ren)'s parents until the child turns 18 years of age, which includes the ability to make decisions on: 1. dayto-day care and control of the child(ren); and 2. making decisions about the child(ren)'s upbringing (including where they live and go to school), education, health and welfare. If you are to nominate more than one person as the child(ren)'s legal guardians, it is best that the nominated persons live together.
